

The second most dominant normal modes for three different initial conditions.

